Computer Lab Visit
Researching MEG

1. Log in as you usually do. You may need to ask the lab manager about any changes in the procedure.
2. Go to www.megsite.com, or if this doesn't work, to www.stevealten.com.
3. Click on the MEG Attack icon to see a quick video.
4. On the far right side of your screen is a menu. Click on Shark Links.
5. Pick two of the links listed under Shark Info. Visit them and read up on sharks.

6. If you are interested, visit the next section on Shark Tooth Vendors. ☺
7. Visit several of the links under Shark Photos & Artwork. Print up a favorite picture and attach it to this sheet.
8. Visit the first link under Megalodon. Read the information and explain why you think (or don't think) that it is possible that megalodons exist today.
